

CELEBRATE THE HORSE CELEBRATE THE SPORT

#together

The legacy of horse and rider penetrates all of human history. Nearly every facet of life is connected to this extraordinary creature. As partners, horses have discovered with us, transported us, sustained us, worked with us, and protected us.

As friends, they have mourned with us, healed us, loved us, entertained us, trusted us, and comforted us. As athletes, horses have competed with us, won with us, and celebrated victory with us.

So, as we embark on the FEI World Equestrian Games™ Tryon 2018, we invite you to join the global community of horse enthusiasts as we celebrate the horse and celebrate equestrian sport together.
